Comprehension

Part A. (10% @ 2%)

Read the passage and answer the questions in complete sentences.

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Sophia. She lived in a small village far from the town. One day, she was waiting for the last bus when the evening school was over. Normally, the last bus should come at ten o'clock. It was twenty past ten already but the bus did not appear. She was so tired and sleepy so that she sat on the ground beside the bus stop to take a rest.

After a very long time, she saw a bus coming. It was moving as slow as a tortoise. 'Why?' she wondered. She was surprised.

Finally, it was very late. The bus came nearer. The door opened. Sophia jumped on it. There was nobody inside, and even the driver! It was empty! But the bus kept on moving by itself. She was too tired to think about the reason. She sat down and went to sleep at once...

1. Where did Sophia live?

Sophia lived in a small village far from the town.

2. When did the last bus usually come?

The last bus usually came at ten o'clock.

3. How was the bus moving like?

The bus was moving as slow as a tortoise.

4. Why did Sophia still take the empty bus?

Sophia was too tired to think about the reason why it was empty.

5. If you were Sophia, would you wait for the last bus to go home?

Why?

(Yes / No with rational reason)

Part B. (12% @ 2%)*Read Karen's letter and answer the questions in complete sentences.

Dear Grandma,

How are you? Is it snowy in Bergen? I'm fine. I like playing outside. I go hiking twice a week. I also like going on a picnic.

Last Sunday, Dad, Mum, Ken and I went on a picnic in Lantau Island. Mandy could not join us because she needed to work. She is a flight attendant now. She needs to travel around the world.

My best friend, Tom, joined us too. His brother, Simon, and his parents also came. We took a bus to a barbecue site. We had porks, sausages, chicken wings and some corns for lunch.

We played together and flew a kite there. We had a nice day. You can look at the photos. Please take care.

Karen

1. Where is Karen's grandpa now?
